MESSAGE OF GOV LETCHER —Gov Letcher of Virginia sets in his annual message at the beginning of the year We reprint a synopsis of it

In relation to the division of the State by Congress he says Western Virginia must necessarily be the territory, I cannot suppose in any treaty of peace that may be agreed upon, Virginia will ever recognize the division of her territory, or ever consent to a treaty that will strip her of any portion of her domain It is better that this war should continue for an indefinite period, than that Virginia shall be even partially dismembered He reviews the North's vandalism without parallel in the history of warfare, and reiterates a long list of indignities, outrages and acts of wanton destruction He estimates the balance in the Treasury, October 1st, at $434,000 The total paid for the war is $7, 837 000 He advises that all free negroes, now residents in the portions of the State overrun by the enemy, be removed and put at work on the fortifications, as they have it in their power to tamper with the slaves and give valuable information to the enemy

One hundred and eighteen men captured by the Virginia State line at Petersburg and Pikeville, in Kentucky, are confined at Richmond, and the Governor has announced to the President the terms upon which such exchanges can alone be made He has placed at hard labor in the penitentiary Captain Graham and Lieutenant Wade, as hostages for Captain Bucky and Lieutenant Vanner, now confined in the District of Columbia penitentiary.

MRS FREMONT'S BOOK —The first copies of this work sold well, and $500 were sent by the publishers to St. Louis on account of the families of Fremont's Old Guard

FRIDAY MORNING, FEB 20, 1863

SECRET ARRESTS —Much hue and cry has been raised all over the country, and more particularly in the late State elections on the Atlantic side, by the opponents of the Administration relative to the secret arrests made by order of the Government The Secesh leaders characterised these arrest as a high handed usurpation of power unequalled by any tyrannical government which has ever preceded the present, and declared the only motive that instigated this proceeding was for purposes of political advantage and selfish hatred This unwarrantable assumption on the part of the United States government has been heralded forth throughout the country, accompanied with many horrible stories of the suffering and barbarous treatment received by these innocent victims of a cruel and vindictive Administration. Floods of tears were started from their fountains, and piteous wails elongated through the columns of their journals and from the hypocritical mouths of their public speakers, over the downfall of the noble institutions of this FREE government,—the abnegation of all political rights and independent privileges All this did well enough before the election, but after the election was over, it transpired that the most of the arrests made for several months were for frauds perpetrated upon the Government Even the New York Herald admitted that the Government had been wronged in the matter After the the discovery of the extensive frauds upon the Government by contractors and volunteer officers were made public, the Herald publish ed the following important admission.

It now appears that many of the arrests made in this city some months ago without apparent cause, and which were attributable to political causes and the rise of a military despotism, had their origin in the frauds now being brought to the light of day The Government, instead of infringing on popular rights and personal liberty, did not arrest one-tenth of the men who ought to have been arrested for fraud and peculation, and, during the agitation caused by the hue and cry against the system of arbitrary arrests all those who were arrested were released and set at liberty

The Herald in the above paragraph confesses that the hue and cry against the Administration for making arbitrary arrests for political purposes, was unjust and unfounded —and that the only ground for complaint was that the authorities at Washington did not "arrest one-tenth of the men who ought to have been arrested for fraud and peculation." A more complete vindication of the Administration against the charge of making secret arrests for political purposes could not be presented

THE NEGRO-WEDDING —The overseer of the Eugene Review is very witty about the negro-wedding at Salem and makes fun of the idea of a white man having any regard for the feelings of a poor mulatto girl We do not expect overseers, either here or at the South to regard the feelings of a poor mulatto girl It can scarcely be expected that an overseer, whose special business it is to tie up mulatto girls and lash them, is influenced by any sentiment of kindness to negroes or mulattoes, but we know that thousands of Southern people who are not overseers, and who own slaves, do have a great respect for the feelings of negroes and mulattoes, and would hardly tolerate an overseer like the one of the Review in their kitchens We are led to make these remarks from the conduct of the overseer of our Joe Lane cotemporary who appears to be afflicted with the notion that somebody's negro is about to be put on an equality with him. This appears to arise from a lurking sense of inferiority which the overseer strives to conceal by blustering about Africans and negro equality There are some persons who are always asserting their superiority of the negro-race with so much emphasis that we are led to believe that they are not so much better than a negro as they would like to have it appear

THOSE FAMOUS GAPS —The gaps in the Blue Ridge, through which an army can pass—of which we hear so much—are seven in number, viz: Snicker's, twenty four miles from the ferry, through which passes the Alexandria and Harper's Ferry turnpike, Ashby's, thirty-eight miles from Harper's Ferry, through which passes a branch pike from the Alexandria to Winchester Fourteen miles below Ashby's is Manassas Gap through which runs the railroad, eight miles below is Chester Gap, a road, not much traveled, passes through it twenty miles still further down is Thornton's Gap, through which the supplies for Lee's army were hauled in wagons from Gordonsville and Culpepper

UNION UPRISING IN EAST TENNESSEE —A Union force of several hundred men from East Tennessee have located themselves about forty-five miles west of Charlotte, North Carolina, with the determination of resisting a force of three hundred rebels and Indians which is stationed in that vicinity The rebels have notified General Kirby Smith of the fact, and request him to send a body of soldiers to assist them in driving the Union men away Bragg, however, has refused the assistance asked, needing Smith's corps himself

Miscellaneous Paragraphs

An English missionary now in Sumatra lately wrote home that he had the melancholy satisfaction of examining the oven in which his predecessor was cooked

The Fall elections in twenty States, including Missouri gave us majorities, 127 438 for the Administration to 67 027 against it being a majority over all of 60 411 in its favor

Artemus Ward, in speaking of the newspapers of his village says that the advertisements are well written and the marriages and deaths are conducted with great ability

The Sacramento Union tells about a German who shot another German's hat off of his head with a rifle at a distance of one thousand yards If we had been told that it was done with the "longbow" we might have believed it

Cotton has reached a price hitherto unprecedented in its history At the close of 1814 cotton was commanding 29@40 cents which held steadily at the commencement of the same year at 13@14 cents per pound During the past year it has further advanced at least 50 per cent being in request at 58@60 cents

The Militia says that the net result of the doings of Ingraham, provided they are correctly reported, will be this If any vessel enter Charleston during the alleged absence of the blockaders it will be at liberty to sail out again without molestation, and that is all

England and France both need cotton In England the lack of employment compels the charitable to subscribe for the support of laborers, when a Frenchman is out of employment, he rebels England needs the most cotton to supply her mills, but France must have a certain amount or a mutiny among her operatives.

An eastern paper says that old books without covers will bring from 6 to 6½ cents per pound, with covers, from 5 to 5½ cents Covers stripped off will sell for one cent per pound Old papers and pamphlets will bring the same as old books White rags are from 12 to 15 cents The price of paper is fluctuating An immense quantity of old paper is finding its way to market.

Here is a bit of English eccentricity Mr Queensley, the Cambridge savan, a great admirer of the Greek poets, has given orders in his will, that after his death his body shall be dissected and his skin taken off and tanned in a manner so as to convert it into parchment on which the Iliad of Homer shall then be copied, the singular MS then to be deposited in the British Museum

RETALIATION IN ARKANSAS —A correspondent of the New York Tribune at Helena, Arkansas, under date of December 29th, relates the following

Last night, the handsome residence of Craig a wealthy slaveholder residing a few miles below, was destroyed by fire by his slaves —This Craig is the man who permitted his negroes to be used in aid of the rebellion, to whom General Curtis gave free papers, but whom General Steele returned to their master by a military guard and an order in his own hand writing from the Post Hospital, where they were employed by the Post Surgeon from whence they were carried for Craig to his own plantation Dave Bostwick and his family were the subjects of this military order, and the result of their forcible return to their master and the discontent of the slaves are seen in the conflagration of Craig's dwelling, with all its furniture, he and his wife only escaping with their lives Some of the slaves were armed, and fired shots at their master and mistress as they were escaping—so the latter report but whether they imagined this in their alarm, or it is a reality, I am quite uncertain

NEW BRITISH COLONY —It is stated in an Irish paper, the Dublin Daily Express, that the Duke of Newcastle, the Colonial Secretary of State, contemplates forming a new province on the east side of the Rocky Mountains out of the immense territory at present under the sway of the Hudson's Bay Company and used by them almost exclusively as a hunting ground The Hon John A Macdonald, late Premier of Canada, is mentioned as likely to be the person to whom the government of the new crown colony will be entrusted In the event of Mr Macdonald succeeding to this valuable appointment he would make the second Canadian statesman whose talents had received a fitting recognition at the hands of the Imperial Government His predecessor in the office of Premier, Mr Hincks, is Governor of one of the West Indian Islands

A REGIMENT ANNIHILATED —Many of our own regiments have been seriously reduced by battle and sickness but the most terrible destruction of a regiment we have heard of in this war was in the case of the Alabama 46th That regiment went into battle at Corinth with 675 men, two days after it was reduced to 285 and in a day after, in the subsequent battle, the Major and ten men only were left fit for duty all the rest being killed, wounded, prisoners or missing

FEELING IN ENGLAND —The London Daily News editorially denounces the miserable spite which is constantly being shown between Americans and Englishmen which creates and sustains a risk of War It looks on the contributions to relieve the Lancashire distresses as an honest and true manifestation of the abiding American feeling towards England, and sets them against the many belligerent threats, having nothing in them but the passion of the moment

BANKS IS ACTING —Advices from New Orleans state that Jacob Barker's paper the National Advocate published an extract on the 2d of January, containing rebel reports of victories at Memphis and Vicksburg, and Jeff Davis' speech at Jackson This caused a ferment and the rebels were hilarious and saucy On the morning of January 3d Gen Banks sent a guard to Barker's office, and the Advocate was for the third time suppressed This step gave great satisfaction to Union men

A SURE CURE FOR FEVER AND AGUE —A correspondent of the Providence Journal says that in ninety nine cases out of every hundred cranberries applied as a poultice will effectually cure the erysipelas There is not an instance known where it has failed to effect a cure when faithfully applied before the sufferer was in a dying state Two or three applications generally do the work

MASSACHUSETTS STATE QUOTA —There are now about three hundred men lacking to fill the quota of Massachusetts under the last call These will be raised without a draft

ONE JUSTIFIED —The Chicago Times justifies the retaliatory proclamation of Jeff Davis This is the paper which was called to account by the Chicago Board of Trade on account of its treasonable articles One of its proprietors made to imprisoned wholly by Gen Grant for treasonable practices

Dr Hall's Balsam The great success of this medicine in all the various affections of the throat and lungs, and the public confidence in its virtues, have induced many unprincipled persons to attempt the sale of worthless articles under the same name, to the great injury of the afflicted, and the public generally. The genuine HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS is prepared only by REDINGTON & CO. General Agents for the Pacific States 416 and 418 Front street, San Francisco

A Fine Gun —Call at AMERICAN SHOOTING GALLERY, Front street, near Morrison, to see the new $200 Bowling Pepper, recently brought to this city. Storage —THE FIRE PROOF STONE WARE HOUSE of the Umatilla House is the only building in Umatilla of wood at the Dalles where goods are taken on STORAGE All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town liable to the risk of fire The subscriber assures his patrons that storage are but $1 50 per ton per month storage in wooden buildings is $1 00 per ton yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses in this place

White's Fever and Ague Drops—For the cure of AGUE PANAMA FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success Indeed in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure in Ague especially one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required

Legal Tender Notes this Day—65 cents.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The following are the proceedings of the Circuit Court of yesterday—Judge Shattuck presiding

E J Northcutt vs Oregon Steam Navigation Company Jury returned a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $326 damages and costs of suit. The damages claimed were $21,500

The day was occupied in the case of the State of Oregon vs Jose Maria Hernandes, for the murder of a man named Smith Both were convicts in the State penitentiary, and were at work in the saw mill Hernandez attacked Smith from behind with an axe, while the former was attending to his work, inflicting a wound from which he died six days after Mr Holbrook will close the argument for defense this morning, and Mr Johnson for prosecution.

MANDAMUS.—On yesterday in the Circuit Court H Shirpser by his attorneys, made application for a writ of mandamus to compel J F McCoy, City Recorder of the City of Portland, to grant him an appeal to that Court from a judgment rendered against him in the Recorder's Court on Monday last, in the case of "The City of Portland vs H Shirpser," wherein he, Shirpser, was charged with violating City Ordinance No 10 An alternative writ of mandamus was awarded by the Court commanding the Recorder to appear in said Circuit Court on Saturday morning next and show cause why the writ should not be made peremptory This is the case in which Shirpser, who is a Cheap John was fined by the Recorder for a violation of Ordinance No. 10—the Recorder having refused to allow John an appeal, on the ground that it was no law authorizing an appeal from the Recorder's Court—hence the application for a mandamus to compel it

CELEBRATION OF WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.—The Sabbath School of the M E Church in this city will celebrate the 22d of February at the Church on Monday evening next. The exercises will consist of speaking and singing and will no doubt be highly interesting

NO CONNECTION.—The southern stage had failed to reach Salem, when the mail left for this place, hence, we have no later news from the East

LECTURE.—Rev. T H Pearne lectures this evening at the Academy. Subject—"The Holy Triumvirate"

WASHOUT AT THE CASCADES.—On the south side of the Columbia, at the Cascades, the sand is about two and a half feet deep under the timber. Upon the north side, it is only about one foot in depth. This difference is caused by the exposure of the north bank of the river to the sun The weather is very cold up a number of these banks of snow lying in the ground.

Died

In this city, on the 18th inst of consumption BENJAMIN NORTHRUP, a native of Western New York in the 37th year of his age

The friends of the deceased are invited to attend the funeral, at 2 o'clock P M, at the residence of Mr Quivey, on the corner of Seventh and Mill streets

Mr. Northrup has been connected with the press of this State and the Coast, since 1853 He was one of the projectors of the San Francisco Evening Journal, and remained with it until its success was established In December, 1861, he commenced, in company with E R. Rees, the publication of the Washington Statesman, with which he was connected, as an editor and proprietor, at the time of his death. At the last Territorial election he was elected one of the representatives from Walla Walla county. His health at the time of his illness was such as gave serious alarm to his friends, and he was urgently advised to seek a milder climate, but being instigated solely by a high sense of public duty, he took his seat at the Territorial Legislature The records of the proceedings of that body will show that he labored faithfully to procure the passage of just and equitable laws for the benefit of his constituents and the good of the Territory in general that he battled manfully against the intriguing and corruptive elements which unfortunately controled to a considerable extent the action of that assembly and when the session closed, Mr Northrup was one of the few who could show a clean record and a clear reputation for honesty and integrity of purpose. Upon the adjournment of the Legislature, he returned to this city, en route for his late home, where many warm friends awaited his return with anxious solicitude fearing that the trip would prove fatal to him which, alas! was too soon the case The fatal malady had been hastened by the over exertions and exposures of the trip his feeble strength was exhausted, and he fell into the arms of a brother, the last remaining one of a large family, who watched over and nursed his fast wasting form until the sands of life ceased to run and his noble generous soul took its final flight to that distant bourne from whence no traveller returns

Another one of our friends is gone another familiar voice hushed in death another honest, faithful and respected citizens called away, even before he had reached the meridian of life and usefulness, another dear and honored brother has fallen to make the fourth victim to the sickle but fearfully sure and which clings with deathly grasp around the family circle, and follows each off spring even to the most distant lands We mourn the loss of this young man, and but repeat the universal expression of all who knew him Alas alas! too soon art thou called away

* * * * * * All that breathe
Will share thy destiny The gay will laugh
When thou art gone the solemn brood of care
Plod on and each one as before will chase
His favorite phantom yet all these shall leave
Their mirth and their employments and all come
And make their bed with thee As the long train
Of ages glide away the sons of men
The youth in life's green spring and he who goes
In the full strength of years, matron and maid
And the sweet babe and the gray headed man—
Shall one by one be gathered to thy side
By those, who in their turn shall follow them

No Compromise with Disease

but resolutely and boldly attack it with the only Remedy that can cure you Dr Van Zandt's ELECTRICAL Restorative Medicines Read the following letter and be convinced that there is hope for you and that you can be cured by the Great Physician and his wonderful Medicines

To the Ladies of California

Dr Van Zandt has opened an office in this city for the treatment of Female Diseases and all those delicate complaints peculiar to the sex His high appreciation of their delicately attuned nervous organism together with their great sympathetic life renders him doubly able to assuage those silent complaints which they too frequently and too long Nervous debility and consequent ailments among females do not find a larger number of their home circles to be an awakened and lamenting victim to restore them to sound health of the body awaken the melancholy ill and I despond age arrest the wasting drains which cause so much anxiety care these protean maladies which have so long

Baffled the Skill of Physicians.

Develope appetite life and animation dispel nervous headache sinking at the stomach wandering pains wasting away of strength extreme debility and listlessness hectic cough sleeplessness unpleasant dreams and that general depression of life's powers which go to render her life a misery and death a boon Dr Van Zandt with his new method of exciting the Electro-Galvanic current together with his remedial agents which are adapted to the necessities of California will assure you of a complete and radical recovery of all bodily and mental infirmities and will restore you to usefulness and spare you a blessing to your family and society

where disease exists whether special to the soil and climate or common to all regions—epidemic or casual acute or chronic contagious or non contagious—it is necessary to restore the ELECTRO-GALVANIC equilibrium especially in California as it is to give food to the starving This statement is based upon a series of facts extending through many years and verified by hundreds of patients so that no principle of science no rule of experience no result of any well known chemic tests upon which are based reliable foundations shall those who have built up the world wide reputation of Electricity for the cure of all acute states of the body fail to find in mental and physical debility or prostration cough asthma wandering pains of a rheumatic gouty or mercurial character and all forms of dilapidation the result of scrofula or constitutional habit of body

None Need Despair of Relief

If you have disease which will not heal—pains that can not be removed—melancholy which you cannot shake off—loss of power which you cannot regain—depression of spirits which weigh you down—wakefulness that knows no sleeping—business but languishes for want of energy—a void which no society can fill—suspicion which no assurance can allay—Go to Dr Van Zandt for his great success and the safety with which he administers his new method of electrical excitation together with his remedies which are adapted to the requirements of climate and constitution we assure you of a complete and radical cure of all bodily and mental infirmities within the scope of science and man to remove

The Eye and Ear Diseases.

It must not be forgotten by the eye and ear sufferers that Dr Van Zandt has made these afflictions an especial study and that he is the only Surgeon in our state who has a diploma for that branch of practice Very many of the eye and ear troubles are purely deranged nervous action, and are cured by his exact opposite battery—as amaurosis squinting cataract floating specks before the vision twirling of the eyelids nerve deafness roaring and buzzing noises in the ears guttural sores etc All operations successfully performed on these delicate organs of sense

Mrs Douglas —The Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Republican takes the following liberty with this lady's name

A paragraph is going the rounds of the press stating that Mrs Douglas widow of the late Illinois Senator, is about to contract an alliance matrimonial with Clerk of the Treasury, no doubt founded upon the court the wily Secretary is known to pay to the accomplished and beautiful lady but it is understood here that the happy man that is to be is General Rufus Ingalls Chief Quartermaster of the Army of the Potomac, under General McClellan One, of both of these reported engagements may be the invention of lively Washington gossips though it is pretty certain that the lady can have for a husband either the susceptible Secretary or the gallant General and judging by her delay in coming to a conclusion upon their respective merits, it may be presumed the contest is about even between the two aspirants for her hand It is a love-tilt between statesmanship and greenbacks, on the one side and soldierly qualities and epaulettes on the other Salmon P may be a sly old dog in love affairs but, the General woos more gently than warrior ever wooed before, and is considered certain of the precious prize

Selling a Doctor's Bill by Marriage — A young lady, named Addie Jamison, only sixteen years old at New York in getting out of an omnibus last spring, fell and broke one of her legs A young M D, who lived in that street, had the suffering girl taken into his boarding house close by where he set the broken limb, and she was then carried home He continued his attendance—fell in love with Miss J, and finally offered her his hand in marriage She accepted, but the girl's father refused his assent to the match because the doctor was poor, and as yet had little practice Sawbones thereupon made out a bill at $2 a visit for 218 visits, and $20 for setting the broken leg He meant to be paid for his courting, if it had all got to go for nothing The old man, finding that he must pay some $400 or $500 or lose his daughter finally gave the doctor the latter on receiving a receipt in full, and the juvenile Miss Jamison is now Mrs. Dr. Grayson

Poverty —Bulwer says that poverty is only an idea, in nine cases out of ten S me men with ten thousand dollars a year suffer more for want of means than others with three hundred. The reason is the richer man has artificial wants His income is ten thousand dollars, and by habit he spends twelve or fifteen thousand, and he suffers enough from being dunned for unpaid debts to kill a sensitive man. A man who earns a dollar a day and does not run in debt, is the happiest of the two Very few people who have never been rich will believe this, but it is true as God's word There are people of course, who are wealthy, and enjoy their wealth, but there are thousands upon thousands, with princely incomes, who never know a moment's peace, because they live above their means There is really more happiness in the world among working people than among those who are called rich

Governor Letcher has selected from among the prisoners recently sent to Richmond from General Floyd's command, the following Federal officers, who will be held in strict solitary confinement, as hostages for Colonel Zarvona and others, similarly held by the Abolition Government: Captain William Graum, Lieut Thos A. Wade, Captain Thomas Dameron, Lieutenant Wilson Dameron, John W Howe, Isaac Goble, David V Auner, Samuel Puck and William L Dills They have been duly consigned to the State prison and confined in appropriate cells

Difficulty and Effort —It is no tease, but effort; not facility, but difficulty that wearies men. There is, perhaps, no station in life in which difficulties have not been encountered and overcome before any decided measures of success can be achieved, those difficulties are, however, our best instructors, as, our mistakes often form our best experience We learn wisdom from failure more than from our success; we often discover what will do, by finding out what will not do, and he who never made a mistake never made a discovery

A Loyal Virginian —D H Strother, the "Porte Crayon" of the Harpers, a Virginian, is a Colonel on the staff of General Banks, and his arrival in New Orleans is chronicled in the papers there

OBITUARY.

A large circle of Christian friends and relatives in different States are called to mourn the sudden death of Rev Wingate Haywood, a clergyman of useful labors for the long period of forty-six years.

Mr Raymond was born in Duanesburg Schenectady Co N Y., on the 4th of March, 1783, being the very day the government of the United States took effect under the Constitution, and Washington entered upon his Presidency When four years of age, his father's family, according to our still continued usage of migration and settlement westward, removed to Sherburne It was in this town situated in the central portion of this native State, that Mr Raymond grew up to manhood. In 1811, being about twenty-two years of age, he commenced a course of collegiate studies in Union College, and, in 1816, graduated with the honors of that institution; and, after one year spent in Howard University he entered upon the work of the ministry to which he had dedicated his talents and his life

In 1818, he was married to Miss Lydia Chapman who still lives, though in feeble health and great bodily weakness, to mourn the loss of her truly devoted husband

After sixty-nine years of ministerial duties in the churches of his native State, Mr Raymond removed to Illinois, where, for the next eleven years he continued his ministerial labors, mostly under the patronage of the Home Missionary Society In 1860 still following up the westward tendency of the old New England families, with many of whom he was closely connected both in the east and west, he came to Oregon where, in Washington county he continued to reside until the 31st of January 1863, when he suddenly departed this life at the advanced age of 74 years

Mr Raymond died of apoplexy Until four o'clock in the afternoon, he was of his usual health which admitted of his bestowing those laborious care, by night and by day for the comfort of his feeble wife, of late suffering greatly from complicated paralytic weakness According to the custom to the custom of good old New England christians he hid early in the afternoon. it being Saturday prepared his wood for the Sabbath and finished up his work for that day of rest At this time one of his sons, passing by him in the lower yard, noticed that he appeared of paler countenance than usual, but as his father made no complaint, but spoke of having shut some pigs that had troubled the yard into a building near by his son thought the apparent change had resulted from that exertion. But on coming again to him, in some two minutes time he was partly down, near the wood, and passing his hands about, as if gathering chips together On asking him, what was the matter, he answered his head was dizzy and he could not keep his feet under him Soon his voice faltered and with the additional help of his daughter the father was carried into the house laid upon the settee, and a physician sent for He soon passed into a deep sleep, and in three hours passed into the world of spirits having died the death of the righteous, as he had also lived his life

The following stanzas forwarded by one of his daughters, Mrs S. W Carter with whom the parents had of late resided, are presented for insertion

Sunday Eve, Feb 1st 1863.

And art thou dead my father
Gone from thy house of clay
Without a moment's warning
Summoned from earth away'

Indeed, we gaze upon thy face
So calm in death's repose,
And wondering, ask if this can be,
Of mortal life the close!

A long life's pilgrimage,
Thy weary feet have trod
Through all its devious ways
Led by Elijah a God.

Faith views these now transformed,
And angel in the realms above
Joining the rapturous song
Of praise to redeeming love

We cannot wish thee back,
To this dark world of sin
But rather follow in thy path,
The crown of life to win

Proclamation by the Governor

Executive Office, Portland Oregon } January 6 1863

By the President of the United States through Brigadier General George Wright commanding the Department of the Pacific and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord commanding the District of Oregon I have been requested to raise six additional companies required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry Oregon Volunteers. They will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory and for an expedition against the Snake Indians, who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow-citizens I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon, who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services will in like manner respond to this call, thereby showing their loyalty to the Government and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers

The enlisted men, when mounted, will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted or not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government

Propositions to raise a whole company which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments, may be entertained The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City and perhaps at other places. By the Governor,

ADDISON C GIBBS
